

ROBINSON | WEEKS PARTNERS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 8th, 2018

ROBINSON WEEKS PARTNERS ANNOUNCES TWO NEW LEASES AT GILLEM LOGISTICS CENTER IN FOREST PARK (ATLANTA), GA

Two new leases have been signed at Gillem Logistics Center, for a total of 424,746 SF, in Gillem Logistics Center Building 200 and Gillem Logistics Center Building 300. These two new leases bring Gillem Logistics Center to 100% leased.

The largest lease of the two tenants is J.I.T. Packaging, LLC with 373,996 SF in Building 200. J.I.T. Packaging is a full service custom industrial packaging company that was started in 1994 with the premise to supply their customers with the highest quality custom packaging solutions and the best custom service possible. Gillem Logistics Center Building 200 is owned by Barings. J.I.T. Packaging was represented by Stephen Bridges with JLL.

The second tenant is Andapak, LLC. They will occupy Building 300 for a total of 50,750 SF. Andapak, LLC produces corrugated cardboard and packaging for company's in the United States as well as over seas. They have an environmental focus using a corn based product and no added chemicals. In the U.S. Andapak, LLC partners with CMC North America, a manufacturer of box folding machines, to deliver clients custom packaging solutions. Andapak, LLC was represented by Kevin Randolph and JR Wright with Reliant Real Estate Partners. Robinson Weeks Partners owns Gillem Logistics Center Building 300 and was represented by Bob Currie and Reed Davis with JLL.

ABOUT GILLEM LOGISTICS CENTER

Robinson Weeks Partners is the master developer of Gillem Logistics Center. The 1,168-acre master planned park will accommodate over eight million square feet of state of the art class-A distribution and e-commerce facilities when completed. Located in the City of Forest Park, Gillem has unparalleled access to major highways, the worlds busiest airport, as well as local and state tax incentives making it a prized location for business operations. Gillem Logistics Center is home to three fortune 500 companies and one of the worlds leading logistics providers.

ABOUT ROBINSON WEEKS PARTNERS

Robinson Weeks Partners is an Atlanta based development and acquisitions firm, whose partners have a combined 140 years of experience in the industrial real estate sector. The firm has developed and acquired more than $2.5 billion of industrial properties over the last 35 years. The boutique real estate firm structures ventures with public and private entities to develop master-planned industrial parks, and it also creates exceptional build-to-suit programs across the country for clients needing a trusted and experienced advisor to acquire and develop their facilities. Its target markets include Atlanta, Dallas, San Antonio, Charleston, Greenville, Memphis, and Florida.

For more information about Robinson Weeks Partners, please call David Welch at 404-815-2019, or visit www.robisonweeks.com.